

Rachel Downey

As principal and founder of Studio Graphique, a brand development consultancy and environmental graphic design firm (EGD), Rachel is the resident visionary for the organization and its staff. She has established the philosophy, direction and culture of the firm that is a highly collaborative and creative environment focused on improving life experiences and opportunities for the Northern Ohio community and beyond. With 13 years invested in developing, growing and focusing the specializations of Studio Graphique, the company is highly refined at creating effective communications supported by high-end creative in the disciplines of branding, placemaking and wayfinding.

rachel@studiographique.com

